

ISLANDER ART GALLERY

The Lam Collection of Aboriginal Art

September 12 - October 25, 2008

Traveling from the UTSA Art Gallery of The University of Texas at San Antonio, this exhibition is the collection of Dr. Victor and Mrs. May Lam of San Antonio who have amassed a remarkable treasury of Aboriginal Art during their travels to Australia. This exhibition is an important and unique opportunity to experience the bold, colorful, and complex contemporary artwork produced by members of one of the world's oldest cultures.

Cataclysm and Creativity: Art in the Age of Uncertainty

September 4 - November 1, 2008

Curated by Dr. Carey Rote, Professor of Art History at TAMU-CC and Liljana Nedelkovska, Curator, Museum of Contemporary Art in Skopje, Macedonia, this historic exhibition offers an exchange of images and ideas by artists from Texas and Macedonia with an intent to examine how artists cope with issues of uncertainty in a time that is wrought by natural and man-made disasters. The common denominator of the exhibition is 2001, the year when Macedonia and America experienced the power of destruction.
